

9.00	Registration and coffee
9.30	Welcome and Introductions Rt Hon Dame Elish Angiolini, DBE, QC, AAS Hon Patron
9.40	Keynote address Michael Matheson, MSP, Cabinet Secretary for Justice, Scotland
9.50	AAS – why AAS was set up; its purpose, offerings, aspirations Ann Moulds, AAS Founder & CEO
10.15	Best Evidence: What evidence leads to Prosecution Anne Marie Hicks, COPFS National Lead for Domestic Abuse and Stalking, Scotland
10.45	Stalking is not harassment. Understanding the difference between two similar concepts Jane Monkton Smith, Senior Lecturer in Criminology and Director of the Centre for Learning and Innovation in Public Protection (CLIPP), University of Gloucestershire; Independent Domestic Homicide Review Chair, England
11.15	Coffee/tea Break, networking
11.40	Internet Offending. Identification, Investigating and Intervention DI Peter Lloyd: Police Scotland
12.05	Parallel Workshops: 1. Child abuse and grooming Marilyn Hawes, CEO, Enough Abuse UK 2. Digitally assisted Stalking Jennifer Perry CEO, Digital Trust UK 3. Understanding typologies of stalkers - why stalkers do what stalkers do Dr Rajan Darjee, Forensic Psychiatrist Orchard Clinic, Edinburgh
12.45	Lunch, networking, exhibitions
1.45	Parallel Workshops (Repeat of the 3 parallel workshops above)
2.25	Parallel Workshops (Repeat of the 3 parallel workshops above)
3.05	Coffee/Tea Break, networking
3.30	The law and the case law that has developed from the Protection from Harassment Act Kim Leslie, Partner, Digby Brown Solicitors, Scotland
4.00	Q & A Panel of speakers and workshop presenters.
4.20	Closing remarks Rt Hon Dame Elish Angiolini, DBE, QC, AAS Hon Patron